

J Shantz Photography

Portrait Photography Agreement/Release

The client hereby gives consent to the use and/or reproductions, publication and sale of photographs taken. I understand J Shantz Photography reserves the right to use negatives, digital files, and/or reproductions of any images taken of me, for the purpose of display, illustration, advertising, competition, promotions, publications or other purposes including electronic retrieval systems (the internet/website).

The client hereby waives any right to inspect or approve the photographs/digital files or any eventual use for which J Shantz Photography may use these materials. With regard to the foregoing the client will have no claims against J Shantz Photography or publishers of these images (in the) present or future.

The client understands and agrees that photography is not an exact science and that films, compact flash cards, photography materials, equipment, or procedures may be defective or incorrect. Liability of J Shantz Photography is limited to a full refund of any deposits/session fees paid on this agreement if failure to produce any or all of the photographs.
